

A YEAR TO CELEBRATE

The Head writes:

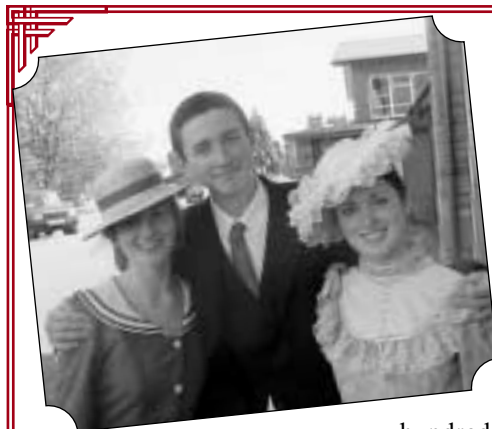

In this Jubilee year, when one of our students not only played for the Queen but also met Prince Philip, we too have a lot to celebrate.

Over the last year, students and staff from The Queen Katherine School have travelled to Texas, Alabama, and different parts of Europe to improve their skills and knowledge, thrown themselves voluntarily from a plane to raise money for charity and given their time cheerfully and enthusiastically to helping others; supported local artistic, musical, dramatic and sporting groups; experienced what it's like to be part of a working team in environments ranging from mucking out in stables to flying in the sophisticated machines of the Royal Air Force. In school, students and staff have shown the capacity to more than cope with all the many curricular changes that seem to be a part of modern education. This Newsletter records a flavour of that year.

As always at the end of a school year, we say farewell to some members of staff. We have an unusually small number of colleagues leaving at the end of this year. Judi Jennings, Heather Frankland, Helen Wilson and Stuart Langhorne are moving East, West, North and South! Alan Hedges, Arthur Atkinson, Barbara Hoyle and Ian Walker, who have all covered for absent colleagues, are also moving on. I am sure we will all want to thank each of them for their hours of committed service. We wish them well, and also every happiness in their new professional challenges.

I would also like to record my thanks to our Senior Students Robin Davies, Simon Howe, Iona Robinson and Samantha Pollitt, and to welcome their replacements Geraldine Booth, Rose Buckler, Jonny Moss and Tim Scott. Finally I would like to thank all staff, the QKSA and all students and parents for their support in another exciting year. I hope you have an enjoyable break and look forward to working with you in September.

The School's musical production 'Half a Sixpence' is playing this week to packed audiences.

Well over one hundred students – ably choreographed, rehearsed, instructed and cajoled by Mrs Barber and Mrs Pater – have been entertaining those lucky enough to see them. Stuart Oldham, who played the part of a craps shooter in 'Guys and Dolls' and Harry in 'My Fair Lady', reflects on what it's like to have a leading role for the first time.

'I was really happy to find out that I had got the main part in the school musical and as the character that I wanted. I was very aware of all the time I would have to spend rehearsing with the other cast members, which I was looking forward to. When I saw how many lines I had to learn I was quite worried as I haven't had to learn that many lines in my two previous plays – but I've managed to learn them all right.

Half a Sixpence

'Playing the part of Arthur Kipps, a Cockney who inherits a fortune and finds out what it's like to be rich, has been great fun. Getting the hang of the accent was quite hard at first – but I just watched 'Eastenders' for a few weeks and I had it sorted!

'One of the best bits for me has been working with the other lead roles – Katy Bell and Hannah Fleming. Also, working with the famous Mr Bell has brought lots of laughs. Although the rehearsals have taken up a lot of time for the cast, and for Mrs Barber and Mrs Pater, I hope all their (and our) hard work and effort has paid off, and that the show turns out as well as we hope it will'.

Everyone on this Year 7-11 list received at least one nomination for attainment, effort and/or service during the year 2001-2002 – Congratulations!

All you have to do is turn up ... Er, not quite!

Calum Hartley competes for the British Judo squad in Holland

Thurs 23.30: To Ferrybridge in Humberside to meet coach, then via various stops around the country to Dover. Ferry to Calais early evening. I hate the sea!

Friday 21.00: Arrive hotel. Check in, then the weighing in, and at last bed

Sat 06.30: Early alarm to make bed and tidy up before breakfast

Sat 08.00: Discover what time my particular weight category is on. 1,500 competitors, so it could be at any time in the day. Hope it's early so I don't have to hang around all day. Hope I do well: it's awful to think you've come all this way and then go out early

Sat 18.15: Competition finally starts for me. Ten hours just hanging around – but it goes well.

Sat 20.00: Back on bus/ferry. I hate buses – but if I get into the senior squad I'll fly to competitions!

Sun 07.00: Arrive back in Kendal. Is it worth it? Yes!!

The girl with blonde pigtails

by Jamie Fletcher

*The girl with blonde pigtails
You'll know her when you see her
Because of the one who gazes from afar
This is why the poem's here*

*He had no clue how she felt
When he admired her all day
For she felt the same as he
But in a different way*

*He tried to make the first move
But didn't have the guts
'I'll ask her to a film' said he
But thought how daft he'd look*

*If she said 'Not a chance'
Because, remember, he didn't know
That 'pigtails' positively
Would have liked to go*

*So instead he went and left it
He'd ask another day
There would be another chance-
He'd no money anyway*

*So he waited for that second chance
Alas it never came –
Until one day her friend popped up
And then said her name*

*Pigtails apparently noticed
The gazes from afar
And so his new life began
Not lonely anymore*

*At first they were really shy
Their eyes barely crossed
So he decided to take action
If it was to last*

*So exactly seven days later
He would find a seat
Secluded in the park
For the first time lips would meet*

*And so the game began
But this is just the start
Alas there isn't enough space to write
The full contents of his heart*

Black Hole

by Laura Kirk

*Swirling, whirling, twirling,
twisting, turning, curling,
Colours and light and space
moving around and around.*

*What's on the other side?
What are we going to find?
Will there be life
or will it be all over?*

*What's it like on the inside?
What's it like when you're out?
Is there another world
Or is it just the same?*

*Will we ever know?
Or will we just have to guess?
And if we ever do
will we find the rest?*

*If we get sucked in,
will we come back out?
Will there be any noise?
Will we be able to shout?*

*So many questions,
But not many answers.
We'll just have to wait and see –
Won't we....?*

THE QUEEN KATHERINE SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

What is the QKSA? Are you even aware that there is a flourishing PTA at the school? Read on – and you'll be amazed at what has gone on this last exciting year.

The main focus of the QKSA is fund-raising – but fund-raising with a smile. We are completely committed to giving as much financial backing to our students and staff as we can; but we try and combine this with an important social aspect. We enjoy what we do. And we see the QKSA as a chance for you to meet new people, to get to know the staff at your children's school, to have a say in what is going on – as a way, if you want it, to be elected onto one of the school's management committees.

So what have we done this year? Fundraising has been focused on the new Library extension (last year we raised £20,000 for the Sports Hall). This year we have raised nearly £6,000 through the Christmas draw, bag-packing at Asda and Marks and Spencer, the Family Fun Day (the winning team of SOHCAHTOA is pictured with Mrs Emmott) and the 200 Club draw. On the social side we held a 60s/70s night with bands provided by the school; and had a Christmas dinner at a local restaurant.

Forthcoming events include a Coffee Morning at the Town Hall on Sat. 20 July, a Treasure Hunt for the new Year 7 intake and families, bag-packing, and a Christmas Fair in November – if any parent is interested in placing an advertisement in the Christmas Fair Brochure please ring Lyndsay Slater (Kendal 726611).

If you feel you would like to become involved in the QKSA, why not come along to our AGM on Monday 28 October at 7.30pm. We are always looking for new members with fresh ideas. We are a friendly bunch – why not give it a try and ring Gill Sadler (Kendal 724831).

We look forward to seeing you at any of these events. Should you have any queries about the QKSA please call Debbie Greenwood (Kendal 734947).
